

“There’s Always a Reason for the Behaviour”: Becoming a Behavioural Detective

Many of the children we care for have complex needs. It can sometimes be difficult to know what to do, and when. This presentation explores the mix of sensory processing issues, traumas, and cognitive challenges experienced by the children we serve and live with. Participants will gain an introductory understanding of complex behaviour and will leave with doable strategies that include co-regulation, sensory approaches, and trauma-informed practice.

October 11, 2018 from 1:00—3:30 pm
SSCY Centre (1155 Notre Dame Ave)

To Register: Please call Rita at (204) 258-6601 or email rdrohomereski@rccinc.ca

Registration is FREE
Only 65 spots available

Kim Barthel, OTR is a world-renowned therapist, facilitator, speaker, teacher, and author on the topics of sensory processing and the neurobiology of attachment, abuse, and addiction.

Parking Information

Visitor parking is available at SSCY. Cost is $2.00 for the first hour, $1.50 for each added hour up to a max. of $8.00 per day. The machine is by license plate and is located by the security desk through the front entrance. It does not take bills, debit, or give change. You can pay by phone.

Street parking restrictions have been lifted for Wall st. from Wellington St. to Wall St. E, as well as Downing St. and Dominion St. from Notre Dame Ave to Yarwood Ave (see map). Please be advised this does not allow parking in No Parking / No Stopping zones or areas subject to a winter parking ban.

