

The Manitoba FASD Family Network

Presents...

Kim Barthel, OT

“There’s Always a Reason for the Behaviour”: Becoming a Behavioral Detective

This FREE presentation will provide an introductory understanding of complex behavior & practical strategies for supporting children with a mix of sensory processing issues, trauma and cognitive challenges.

Location: Selkirk Regional Health Center

Time: 1:00 PM - 3:30 PM

Date: Thursday, October 11th, 2018

In partnership with the FASD Family Network & Jordan’s Principle

Please register with: Sherisse Picklyk Dear via email spicklykdear@ierha.ca or call 204.785.7547
by October 10, 2018